

Feast of Blessed Mary MacKillop RSJ

The Feast of Blessed Mary MacKillop RSJ who founded the Brown Josephite Sisters is celebrated on 8 August. However, this year it falls on a Sunday and as always on Sundays the resurrection of the Lord takes precedence.

You probably already know that the canonization of Blessed Mary will take place in Rome on 17 October this year. This is a great moment in the life of the Church both in Australia and New Zealand. The Bishops of New Zealand have published a pastoral letter - a copy of which is included in the newsletter today.

Church Sound System

Many of you have told me that at times and in various parts of the Church you have difficulty hearing the words the priest is saying especially when he is speaking at the Altar and at the Presidential Chair.

I have had an assessment done by a 'Sound Expert' and am awaiting his analysis and recommendations. I will inform you as soon as his report is received. In the meantime there have been adjustments made especially to the 'lapel' microphone which the priest wears and I am hoping this has made some improvement.

The Maori Chaplaincy Appeal will take place on Sunday 22 August. The funds from the appeal will be directed by the Maori Chaplain, Father Gerard Burns according to the Pastoral Plan formulated by 'Te Kahu o te Rangi', the coordinating and Pastoral Council for Maori Catholic in the Archdiocese. The funds will be used for supporting and developing rangatahi (youth) chaplaincy, visiting Maori communities and formation of Maori Catholic leaders.

The work of the chaplaincy is enhanced or limited only by the generosity of our faith communities so we would be grateful for your support.
