

21ST NOVEMBER 2010 : FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING YEAR C

Revised Roman Missal

From next week on we take leave of the English translation of the People's Parts of the Mass that we prayed with for the past 40 years. As we enter the season of Advent we take up the responses which have come about as a result of the Revised Roman Missal.

These responses will be displayed on the Data Projector Screen at each Sunday Mass except the 7am Mass. A special Missalette has been received from the National Liturgy Office to help us with the changes but unfortunately Parishes have not received enough copies for each person to have their own. They will be left around the Church but please do not take them home. They will be required for weekday Masses.

While our words will change as a result of the revision of the Roman Missal we need to remember that at the heart of our worship is the one unchanging and eternal sacred action of the Mass. The continuity of our liturgical celebration gives witness to an unbroken tradition: New Words, Deeper Meaning, Same Mass.

Confirmation

At the 5pm Mass tonight James O'Toole will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. James is a university student and is working with Father Mark Walls s.m. in the Marist Education Ministry. We pray that God will abundantly bless James as he receives this sacrament tonight.

Xmas Cards

Available after all Masses today. The cards are of the Nativity Window in the Church and come in three sizes: A6, DLE and a much larger A5 card.

Each card comes with an envelope and the proceeds will help with the Presbytery refurbishment. The cards are also available at the Parish Office.

Holy Souls

During November the Remembrance Book for Holy Souls is placed on the Altar at each Mass.

If you wish to place names in the book, you will find it on the table on Our Lady's side of the Church.

If you would like a special Mass said please write the names on the front of the envelope provided, place a Mass stipend inside and give it to Sister Frances or one of the Priests

A Mass of Remembrance will be held at St Mary of the Angels on Thursday 25 November at 5.15pm. This Mass is to remember all those with direct or indirect links to our Parish community, who have died, including those who have been buried from St Mary of the Angels.

If anyone wishes to bring a photograph or other small memento in honour of a loved one, they are welcome to do so. At the appropriate time during Mass, they will be invited to light a candle and to place these items near the altar rails.

For more information, please contact Sr Frances Gibbs at the Parish Office or Suzanne O'Rourke (suzanneor@gmail.com)
