Father Stanislaus Joseph Mahony s.m.

Last Thursday was the anniversary of death of Father Stanislaus (Stan) Mahony the builder of the present Church.

Father Stan emigrated with his family from London. He attended the Marist Brothers School in Boulcott Street and then worked with a mercantile firm. When St Patrick's College opened in 1885, Stan, 17 years old, enrolled with the initial 21 pupils. He joined the pre-seminary in Boulcott Street and was one of the first four students at St Mary's Scholasticate at Meeanee in 1890.

After ordination in 1893 he returned to St Patrick's College to teach from 1894 to 1901. He was then appointed to the Mission Band preaching missions throughout New Zealand before being appointed to Hokitika, Christchurch Cathedral and Leeston. He became the Parish Priest of Nelson (1910 - 1913) and then Parish Priest of Wanganui in 1914. From 1917 until his death in 1933 he was Parish Priest of St Mary of the Angels.

In May 1918 fire destroyed the wooden St Mary of the Angels Church. The rebuilding of a new Church (1919 - 1922) was a difficult task due to shortages of materials because of the war. In 1920 the builder relinquished the contract. Father Mahony and his great friend Martin Maloney took over and saw the project through. A stained glass window commemorates his patron saint Stanislaus Kostka S.J.

I have great admiration for Father Mahony and he has been a wonderful inspiration to me as we undertake the seismic strengthening of the beautiful Church he built. We pray for his soul and ask God to reward him with eternal life for his vision and hard work in creating for the Parish and the people of Wellington the beautiful Church of St Mary of the Angels.

This Week's Readings

First Reading Sirach 3: 17-20, 28-29
Humble yourself and you will find favour with the Lord.

Second Reading Hebrews 12: 18-19, 22-24
You have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God.

Gospel Reading Luke 14: 1, 7-14
All who exalt themselves shall be humbled and all who humble themselves shall be exalted.

Next Week's Readings

First Reading Wisdom 9: 13-18

Psalm 67

Second Reading Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Gospel Reading Luke 14: 45-23

Responsorial Psalm 67

R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The just shall rejoice at the presence of God, they shall exult and dance for joy.
 O sing to their Lord, make music to his name; rejoice in the Lord, exult at his presence. R

Father of the orphan, defender of the widow, such is God in his holy place.
 God gives the lonely a home to live in; he leads the prisoners forth into freedom. R

You poured down, O God, a generous rain: when your people were starved you gave them new life.
 It was there that your people found a home, prepared in your goodness, O God, for the poor. R

Pa-ras-ti in dul-cē-di-ne tu- a pau-pe-ri De- us.-

In thy sweetness O Lord, Thou hast provided for the poor.

Prayer for Seismic Strengthening Work

Gracious God, Creator of the Universe, you made us in your own image and likeness.

You gave us wisdom and understanding, grateful hearts and creative minds.

We pray that our beautiful Church will be strengthened against the peril of earthquake through the generosity of parishioners, the community of Wellington and people throughout New Zealand.

We ask, Lord, that you abundantly bless those who have already donated funds, skill and expertise to this project.

May St Mary of the Angels Church be a symbol of a unified community that will gather to praise and thank you.

Mary our Mother, pray for us.
