29 October 2017, 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Vespers for the Feast of All Saints

We will celebrate Vespers for the Feast of All Saints this Wednesday at 7.30pm in the Church. The Choir follows the form of modern liturgy with the set Gregorian hymn, the two psalms and Cantic sung in Latin to the traditional tones and a setting of 'Magnificat' by Palestrina. Following the liturgy the choir sings some of the liturgical music written for this particular feast and will share some other pieces from their repertoire.

This year the Vespers will honour Leo Buchanan who passed away on 11 October. Leo had a particular love for the music of the traditional liturgy and the Choir will especially sing Vivaldi's Gloria which Leo loved so much. One of the choir members, Vincent Brzozowski, a performance student at the NZ School of Music will play the trumpet.

Feast of All Saints and All Souls

The Mass times for these two Feast days on Wednesday and Thursday this week are: 7.30am, 12.05pm and 5.15pm.

Please come and pray for those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Organ Concert Sunday 12 November at 6pm

Concert Organist Witold Zalewski from Poland take us on a dazzling sound journey through the world of organ music to mark the 99th anniversary of Poland's independence.

Born in Krakow, Zalewski is organist of the Krakow's Wawel Royal Cathedral, which was very close to the heart of the late Pope St John Paul II. It was in this Cathedral that Karol Wojtyla received his episcopal consecration as Bishop on 28 September 1958, and later as Cardinal on 9 July 1967. Cardinal Wojtyla preached at St Mary of the Angels Church during his visit to Wellington in 1973.

Opening the Organ Concert will be a special launch of a limited publication of excerpts of Karol Wojtyla's poem 'Thinking my Country' into Te Reo Maori and English.
