The Spiritual Law of Abundance

It can be the case that we are so caught up in our physical dimension that we lose touch with our spiritual dimension. We see this in Philip and Andrew in our Gospel (John 6:1-15).

When they hear the word "bread," it means flour and water. When they see people they count how many. They know that a word closely connected with the laws of the physical dimension is "scarcity." There are too many people, and there is too little money and too little bread. What they see, with a mind restricted to the physical dimension, is an impossibility. Physical consciousness can only do division - they see the crowd, the sums do not work out - they panic.

Spiritual consciousness, on the other hand, works by multiplication. The Lord Jesus restores the soul of the people by the spiritual law of abundance. What Andrew and Philip learn is to gather up all that is left over so that nothing is lost. They must remember to integrate this spiritual teaching into their lives and the lives of their communities.

For us, the message is that only from God are we satisfied. We bring our little offering and God transforms it. Jesus took the small boy's little loaves and fish and magnifies them to huge proportions. We can be greatly encouraged by the miracle because no matter what little we have, Jesus can take it from us and magnify it's impact; our little offering, put into Christ's hands, the hands of God, transformed, used to bring about great things.

Angelus Sponsors

Due to changes in circumstances not all our current sponsors can continue to help fund the printing of the St Mary of the Angels weekly newsletter. We are looking for two new sponsors to financially support the next reprint of the Angelus by placing a permanent advertisement in the newsletter. If you or someone you know would like to place an ad in the Angelus, similar to those in the middle and back page, please contact the Parish Office to discuss pricing and requirements.

Responsorial Psalm 144

R The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. R.

The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time. You open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live. R.

The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds. He is close to all who call him, who call on him from their hearts. R.

Ape-ris tu manum tu-am, et imples omne a-nimal.

Thou openest thy hand and fillest every living creature.

Good News from City Council

The Seismic Assessment Officer at Wellington City Council has written acknowledging that the seismic strengthening work on our church has been completed. They have issued a code compliance certificate for the work done.

This leaves us with planning for the ongoing maintenance of the church, the seismic strengthening of the presbytery and completion of the work started on that building.
