St Mary of the Angels is a diverse community which seeks to praise and thank God in a place of calm and beauty and strives to be Christ alive in Central Wellington

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time, 14 October, 2012 Year B

Welcome

We warmly welcome Dominic Gardner who will be baptized at the 9am Mass today. Dominic is the son of Amanda and Ron and little brother of Luke and Jacob.

Dominic's baptism continues a wonderful tradition for the Gardner family at St Mary of the Angels. Amanda and Ron were married in this Church, Ron was received into the Church through the RCIA programme here in 2009 and Luke and Jacob were also baptized here. We welcome Dominic as the latest member of the Gardner family to be baptized into the life of Christ and the community of St Mary of the Angels.

I hope you will join us in welcoming Dominic at the morning tea in the Parish Hall after Mass.

Thank You

A sincere thank you to those parishioners who made a financial contribution to help purchase the plants for the garden at the entrance to the front of the Church. On Friday the planting took place and hopefully the rain this weekend will nourish the plants as they begin to grow.

I also thank Nicky Oliver-Smith from the Berhampore Nursery who was so generous in setting out a plan and recommending the type of plants for the garden and Jasmine Zimmerman who carried out the planting. We look forward to the colour and beauty as the plants establish themselves.

Pot Luck Dinner

This evening there will be a 'pot luck' meal in the Parish Hall for the young people of our Parish following the 5pm Mass. University lectures are almost over and after exams many students will return home for the summer holidays. This is a wonderful opportunity to thank God for the blessings of this year.

The Parish will provide the main course of rice and a meat dish. If you would like to contribute a plate of food it would be most appreciated – perhaps a salad or something for dessert.

Responsorial Psalm 127

R Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy.

Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger forever? Show pity to your servants. R

In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. R

Show forth your work to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. R

Reple-ti sumus ma-ne mi-se-ri-cordi- a tu- a, et exulta-vimus.

St Mary of the Angels Choir

The Choir of St Mary of the Angels is looking for new members. The last two years have seen more departures than arrivals, and although we still have a stable, talented and balanced group, we always welcome people who think they might like to sing. There is no audition. Even though the music the choir sings does require great skill, that skill can be developed in anyone who wants to do it.

There are several current members who began with the choir with no real experience of reading music, let alone reading Gregorian chant notation. Their patience and persistence has developed their talent, and equipped them for the challenges of the wonderful music the choir sings every week.

The standard to which the choir aspires is high and this may seem to put it out of the reach of 'ordinary' people. However if the desire to sing is there, it is up to the director to help members develop their skills, enhance their talents, and, every week, sing the music proper for the day.

If you are inclined to try, discuss it with one of the choir members who will be standing at the back of the church after 11am mass today, or come down and enjoy a cup of coffee with the choir afterwards and take one of the choir flyers or visit the website www.smoa.org.nz/music/choir.php. The parable of the talents applies to singers, and there is only one way to find out if you have a voice!
