21st September 2014, 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

The Spirit of Co-operation

I am sure that all parishioners of St Mary of the Angels have felt the loss of our Church since its closure in July 2013. We do miss the beauty and sacredness of a space that the Parish has worshipped in since 1922. However, there have also been some very special things that have happened since the closure and so many people and other Christian communities who have reached out to help us in our

The spirit of co-operation which we have been the benefactors of in so many ways has helped us as a Parish to continue with our week-day and Sunday Masses and it has deepened our friendship with our Christian brothers and sisters.

Another example of this generosity is the St John's Presbyterian Fellowship Group. They have asked me to speak at their October meeting about the seismic strengthening plans for the Church which I am very happy to do. They have also extended an invitation for any of our elderly parishioners to attend their regular monthly meetings. Those meetings for the rest of this year are:

- 11am Tuesday 23 September Speaker: Roger Lloyd "The Impact of Flowers"
- 11am Tuesday 28 October Speaker: Father Barry Scannell sm
- 11am Tuesday 25 November An early Advent Church Service and lunch

I think it is important for us to respond to this generous invitation. I would like to hear from any elderly parishioners who would be prepared to attend these meetings of the Fellowship Group. The next meeting is at 11am this Tuesday.

Hospital Chaplaincy Appeal

This week is National Hospital Chaplaincy Week. Hospital Chaplaincy is a very important service. The Inter-Church Council for Hospital Chaplaincy (ICHC) provides Hospital Chaplaincy Services in 48 public hospitals from Kaitaia to Invercargill. The current contract between ICHC and the Ministry of Health has brought the government's contribution back to almost 50% of the total cost of the service nationally and so it is necessary for the ICHC Trust Board and its Local Service Provider Committees to seek the other portion ($2.4 million) from the Churches and the wider community, if it is to maintain its current service. Donation slips are available Masses today. Please give generously and keep the work of the ICHC Chaplains in your prayers.

Reflection: The last shall be first

In today's gospel parable the labourers who worked all day receive the same wage as those who work one hour, and so they complain. You can see their point. Justice is about giving a person what is owed to them and, on the surface of it, the labourers hired first should have been paid more but as it is stated in Isaiah 55, "my thoughts are not your thoughts and my ways are not your ways."

The hired labourers in the Gospel were the lowest of class of Jewish workingmen. They and their families lived at the poverty level. If they were unemployed, even for a day, the family would go hungry. Their situation was so bad that when they were hired for a days' work they had to be paid before sundown so that they were able to shop and put bread on the table. The market place was the labour exchange and so workers would arrive early with their implements and stay until the end of the day in the hope of being hired.

What does the story mean? I think the answer is in sensing the scene rather than intellectualizing it. Let your imagination see the kindness in the owner's face, call to mind the gloom of the ones hired so late. See their gratefulness now.

The wages are not remuneration for hours worked. They are a gift from a fond heart. Didn't Jesus tell this parable to show how God's caring heart works, how he gives a depth of love to each person, especially to those who suffer and are left behind? There is no greater reward than the gift of God himself, and joy is the only response to the gift.

We are each challenged to reflect something of God's indiscriminate goodness and generosity in our dealings with one another. God's ways are indeed not our ways, but our ways can become a little more like God's ways.

Mary-Anne Peetz, Lay Pastoral Leader, Otari Parish

Gracious God, Creator of the Universe, you made us in your own image and likeness.

You gave us wisdom and understanding, grateful hearts and creative minds.

We pray that our beautiful Church will be strengthened against the peril of earthquake through the generosity of parishioners, the community of Wellington and people throughout New Zealand.

We ask, Lord, that you abundantly bless those who have already donated funds, skill and expertise to this project.

May St Mary of the Angels Church be a symbol of a unified community that will gather to praise and thank you.

Mary our Mother, pray for us.
