A New Commandment; Love One Another

Being a follower of Jesus Christ is a willingness to love. We have heard "love one another as I have loved you." These words of Our Lord, given not as a suggestion or an option, or something to embrace if we want to, but a challenge to put into practice each day till our final breath.

The teaching of Jesus is not a philosophy or a theory, but a way of life, a way of love, manifested in words and deeds. "Love one another as I have loved you." It is the basic teaching of Jesus, and that is our work, challenging as it might be, even a cause of suffering and death.

The words and deeds of Jesus teach a path other than violence, hatred and revenge, and we are called to imitate the example of Jesus in our daily lives. We might ask ourselves; how did Jesus love? Without counting the cost, even as it led to suffering and death on the cross.

Jesus lived and died for others and never ignored the cries of the poor and needy. He cured the sick, gave sight to the blind, raised the dead, pardoned sinners. Jesus willingly shared in the sufferings and joys of people around him. His guiding principal was, "Do not judge and you will not be judged."

Jesus could understand and hope in others, even if there might be cause for discouragement or despair. Through self giving love He shared our human condition completely even to the extreme for suffering and dying for those he loved. The love of Jesus is a constant and generous gift of self. Before giving his life on the cross, Jesus gave his Body and Blood at the Last Supper as a perpetual gift to those who were able to believe in him and embrace His teaching and example of, "no greater love than to give one's life for one's friends", realized perfectly in his existence."

The call for each of us is to imitate Christ day by day. It is not easy to know what to do in given circumstances of life, let alone to put it into practice. We are promised the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit, alive and active in the Church, in her Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, and in our lives, assisting us in our struggle to do good. Even when we fail sometimes or often, we are not to give up on our efforts.

Today's Gospel message is certainly applicable in our times and lives. The Lord invites us to forget ourselves and be totally dedicated to God and others without counting the cost. May the Lord enlighten our minds and hearts to be on fire for the things of God, today and always.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God, to make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign. R.

National Shrine Prayer

E te Atua , Creator of heaven and earth,
Source of all life, giver of all that is good,

We pray for Aotearoa New Zealand

And for all who come to her shores and make it their home.

We recall with gratitude our forebears in the Faith,

Who dedicated this country to the care of Mary,

Mother of God, assumed into heaven.

Pour out your Spirit upon us as we seek to respond to you,

Bringing your peace and harmony to this sacred land.

May we continue to praise you as we carry the Good News of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters.

We make this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Mary, assumed into heaven; pray for us.

What's in a Name?

Robert Prevost has been elected the first North American leader of the Catholic Church, taking the name Pope Leo XIV. Though American Pope Leo worked for many years in Peru as a missionary.

Pope Leo XIV 's choice of name signals a commitment to social justice. Pope Leo XIII, who was head of the Catholic Church from 1878 to 1903, laid the foundation for modern Catholic social thought, most famously with his 1891 encyclical Rerum Novarum, which addressed workers' rights and capitalism at the dawn of the industrial age.

Significantly, he presided over one of the most revolutionary reforms Francis made, when he added three women to the voting bloc that decides which bishop nominations to forward to the pope.

Perhaps he appealed to his brother cardinals because of his quiet style and support for Francis, as well as his commitment to social justice issues.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ,
our brother,
and the flame of love enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen
