St. Peter and Paul.

Today we are celebrating the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul Apostles. We might say the pillars of the Church. Here are a couple of reflections to consider: St. Peter becoming a true friend of Jesus. Not long after Jesus had risen from the dead He asked Peter, "Do you love me?" Not only once, but three times. Peter's response being, "Yes I love you Lord". Peter and Jesus were friends, in spite of Peter's flaws! Peter was always trying to do whatever Jesus asked of him. During the three years that Peter spent with Jesus, he was taught, tested, and sifted, through it all he became a true friend of Jesus. Jesus questioned Peter's love three times! why? At the Last Supper, Peter announced that he was prepared to die for Jesus. A few hours later he failed the test. Denying Jesus, Peter damaged his reputation amongst the Apostles. Peter himself was filled with guilt and shame. Jesus now was bringing Peter reconciliation, peace and joy. We can be friends of Jesus. We can be people that He calls His own. We may need to be taught and tested, stretched and refined, transformed and recreated. Like any close friendship, the rewards outweigh the challenge.

St. Paul: In the Acts of the Apostles, Paul, the zealous persecutor of the Church became a zealous missionary. Paul's encounter with the Lord on the road to Damascus worked a profound transformation in his life. In various accounts St Luke is giving a classic definition of conversion. Conversion means "knocked off one's high horse," leads to a change in life. Paul's transformation was not a conversion in the classic sense of turning away from idolatry. He was a devout Jew, and worshipped the one true God.

Paul did experience a transformation: God had predestined Paul, set him apart before he was born, and called him to proclaim the Gospel among the Gentiles. When Paul describes this experience, he doesn't refer to it as a conversion, but as a call. This experience changed Paul. Paul's encounter with the Lord reveals a wider meaning of conversion. It is not only a call away from sin. Conversion is a call to mission, as a homemaker, an executive, a labourer, a parent.

Whatever our situation, God has called us and empowered us to proclaim the gospel in word and deed.. We are not only called to change our lives, but to proclaim the gospel and bring others into the light of Christ as well. Conversion is a response to God's activity in our lives. It is an acknowledgement of our sinfulness, and our deep need of God. Conversion means trusting in God and going wherever He leads us. We are truly converted when we pray as Jesus prayed, "Thy will be done". Luke.22:42

Responsorial Psalm 33

R. The Lord set me free from all my fears

I will bless the Lord at all times,
 His praise always on my lips
 In the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
 The humble shall hear and be glad. R.
 Glorify the Lord with me.
 Together let us praise his name.
 I sought the Lord and he answered me;
 from all my terrors he set me free. R.
 Look towards him and be radiant;
 let your faces not be abashed.
 This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress. R.
 The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.
 Taste and see that the Lord is good.
 He is happy who seeks refuge in him. R.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ,
our brother,
and the flame of love enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen

Collection St. Peter's Pence: a gesture to support the Pope in His mission.

On June 29—which this year falls on the last Sunday of June—the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, on the occasion, the traditional Peter's Pence collection takes place. This is a concrete way to support the Holy Father in his mission of service to the universal Church.

Peter's Pence is a gesture of communion and participation in the Pope's mission to proclaim the Gospel, promote peace, and spread Christian charity.
