15 June 2025, The Most Holy Trinity

The Feast of The Holy Trinity One God, Three Persons - Father, Son and Spirit

This feast is not the time to try and explain how three goes into one! The Trinity is not something that we can understand and figure out with our brain. We most certainly won't find the explanation to the Trinity by 'googling' it!

The Trinity is a mystery that we are to experience with our hearts not with our heads. It is not a puzzle or a riddle that we are expected to answer or solve. When we use the word 'mystery' to describe the Trinity, we are talking about a reality that is endlessly rich and profound. We can always understand more and more about how this picture of God rules and shapes our lives. God is everywhere and at all times the Father who creates and loves us, the Son who liberates and saves us and the Holy Spirit who encourages and strengthens us. The Trinity is simply a community of life and love that we are invited to share in.

When we look at the news on television or read the newspaper, we are often presented with images of violence, segregation and building walls. We are confronted with individuals and, indeed, some countries loudly and blindly defending their rights at the expense of dialogue and cooperation with other individuals and nations. Sadly, there is division where there could be unity, there is aggression where there could be understanding, and there is suspicion where there could be trust and mutual respect.

The Trinity offers us a model of belonging and sharing as a community. It challenges our individualism, our demand that our rights be met all the time. The Trinity asks us to be mindful of our responsibilities to those around us in our families, at school and university, at work, in our neighbourhood and our parish community.

When we begin our prayers, we do so by making the sign of the cross and calling on the power and presence of the Trinity. When we pray 'Glory be to the Father and to the Son ...,' we do the same. Perhaps today - and in future - we could say these prayers more slowly so that we can reflect upon who our God is and how we are called to be like Him.

Thought for the Week

We are not human beings having a spiritual experience.
 We are spiritual beings having a human experience.

Responsorial Psalm 8

R. O Lord our God,
how wonderful your name in all the earth.

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
 the moon and the stars which you arranged,
 what is man that you should keep him in mind,
 mortal man that you care for him? R.

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
 with glory and honour you crowned him,
 gave him power over the works of your hand,
 put all things under his feet. R.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
 yes, even the savage beasts,
 birds of the air, and fish
 that make their way through the waters. R.

Quam admi-ra-bi-le est nomen tu-um in u-ni-versa terra.

How admirable is thy name in all the earth.

E te Atua, Creator of heaven and earth,
Source of all life, giver of all that is good,

We pray for Aotearoa New Zealand

Bringing your peace and harmony to this sacred land.

May we continue to praise you as we carry the Good News
of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters.

We make this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ,
our brother,
and the flame of love enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen
