God's Law or Word is neither beyond our strength nor beyond our reach. It is on our lips and in our hearts. Notice the link between mouth and heart. We profess with our lips what is rooted in the heart. Jesus himself declared as much when he said that it is not what goes into the mouth that makes people unclean. It is what comes out of the mouth from the heart that makes people unclean (cf. Matthew 15:11-20).

Jesus, however, goes even further: we are to practise what we preach. We are to practise what we preach arising from what is rooted in our hearts. By patterning our lives on Jesus, the Word of God made flesh, our witness will reflect the "grace and truth" of Christ (cf. John 1:14): where grace refers to the living and active presence of God, and truth to the truth about God and the truth about righteousness, which describes the integral and wholesome threefold relationship we are to have with God, with neighbour by which we will come to know our true selves. To safeguard this grace and truth requires discernment and conversion of heart. This will ensure what is clean does not become sullied through culpability or complacency.

In his parable, by showcasing the Samaritan as the only one who came to the aid of the battered Jew, Jesus is saying that in practising what we preach our neighbour is not just those we share some affinity with but applies to anyone in need whom we can help. Nor should our aid be constrained by political, cultural, or religious prejudices. Such prejudices only cloud the heart, contaminating the Law or Word of God rooted therein.

Jesus is the incarnation of God's Law, the human face of the unseen God. By his life, death and resurrection he has reconciled all things to God. If we profess faith in him, our faith is to show itself in good works (cf. James 2:26). These good works are the fruits of our love and service; fruits that continue to make Christ's reconciliation visible and tangible here and now, without ever forgetting the image of the "good" Samaritan, who reminds us that the fruits of our love and service are never directed only to those we know, or are related to, or have an affinity for, but to all who enter our circle of care

Responsorial Psalm 68

R. Turn to the lord in your need, and you will live.

This is my prayer to you,
my prayer for your favour.

In your great love, answer me, O God,
with your help that never fails:

Lord, answer, for your love I kind;
in your compassion, turn towards me. R.

As for me in my poverty and pain
let your help, O God, lift me up.

I will praise God's name with a song;
I will glorify him with thanksgiving. R.

The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive;
for the Lord listens to the needy
and does not spurn his servants in their chains. R.

For God will bring help to Zion
and rebuild the cities of Judah.

The sons of his servants shall inherit it;
those who love his name shall dwell there. R.

Justi-ti-a Domi-ni rectae,-laeti-fi-cantes corda-

The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts.

Mass Cancelled

National Shrine Prayer

E te Atua , Creator of heaven and earth,
Source of all life, giver of all that is good,
We pray for Aotearoa New Zealand
And for all who come to her shores and make it their home.
We recall with gratitude our forebears in the Faith,
Who dedicated this country to the care of Mary,
Mother of God, assumed into heaven.
Pour out your Spirit upon us as we seek to respond to you,
Bringing your peace and harmony to this sacred land.
May we continue to praise you as we carry the Good News
of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters.
We make this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
Mary, assumed into heaven; pray for us.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ,
our brother,
and the flame of love enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen
