A revolution in two words

Have you noticed that we never start the Lord's Prayer by saying, "Almighty God" or "Lord God," or even just "God"? Instead, we say, "Our Father." The creator of the immense universe – all that exists, has ever existed and will ever exist – is not far-off and impersonal. Instead, Jesus shows us that God is as close to us as our own family members.

Because we have been praying the Our Father our entire lives, we can easily miss how radical this is. Jesus himself prayed the Psalms with great frequency, but none of the 150 Psalms begin with this exclamation of "Father." By inviting us to address God as our Father, Jesus frames all our prayer in the context of a very personal relationship and tells us that we can speak to God with the same tenderness and honesty that we use with our closest friends.

One of the most challenging parts of the Lord's Prayer is that first little word: We don't say my Father, but Our Father.

Don't get me wrong, each of us is still invited to have a personal relationship with God, just as each child in a family relates to a parent in a particular way. But by praying to Our Father, we're called to leave behind individualistic ways of thinking and overcome division by being joined to a community of faith. Christian prayer is never simply about me and Jesus. Christian prayer is always united with the whole Body of Christ.

If God is our Father, then all people are our brothers and sisters. That person who cut you off in traffic? That politician you cannot stand? That friend or work colleague who spoke badly about you behind your back. You and I are challenged to believe God is their Father too.

Our" is not the only sneakily significant word in the Lord's Prayer. There's an even smaller, even sneakier, and even more significant word: "as." We ask God to forgive our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. We're essentially saying that we are in no position to receive God's mercy unless we first forgive others. As the Catechism states, "Our petition looks to the future, but our response must come first".

So, we say more in this prayer through those two little words than we may first imagine we do. We are saying we never pray alone but always as a member of a community, and, we need to forgive others if we want God to forgive us. Who knew so much was going on in two little words! What if we lived as though what we were praying was true? How different the world might look!

Responsorial Psalm 137

R. Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.

I will adore before our holy temple. R.

I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you.

On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul. R.

The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of affliction
you give me life and frustrate my foes. R.

You stretch out your hand and save me,
your hand will do all things for me.

Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands. R.

In qua-cumque di-e invo-ca-ve-ro te, ex-audi me.

In what day so ever I shall call upon thee, hear me.

National Shrine Prayer

E te Atua , Creator of heaven and earth,
Source of all life, giver of all that is good,
We pray for Aotearoa New Zealand
And for all who come to her shores and make it their home.
We recall with gratitude our forebears in the Faith,
Who dedicated this country to the care of Mary,
Mother of God, assumed into heaven.
Pour out your Spirit upon us as we seek to respond to you,
Bringing your peace and harmony to this sacred land.
May we continue to praise you as we carry the Good News of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters.
We make this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
Mary, assumed into heaven; pray for us.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ,
our brother,
and the flame of love enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

Join Us To Celebrate THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY!

On August 15th at 6.00pm all the Bishops of Aotearoa New Zealand will gather here at St Mary of the Angels to celebrate the feast of 'Mary, Mother of God, Assumed into Heaven'.

This is the patronal feast of our country and the feast of our church, the National Shrine. Everyone is invited to attend this special occasion. Through the intercession of Mary, we will ask God, our Father, to continue to shelter our country from dissension and discord, from violence and from war, to protect us and watch over us.

After the mass there will be an opportunity to meet our Bishops in the church hall where light refreshments will be provided.
Extra car parking will kindly be made available for us by the Baptist community in their parking building opposite their church in Boulcott St.

Please mark this date and time in your calendars.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Program

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) programme will commence again on the 4th of September for anyone who is interested in joining our Catholic Community.

This programme runs from September to April and involves weekly group meetings to learn about and discuss our Catholic Faith.

If anyone is interested in joining this programme please make contact with Fr Michael on mlyoung@gmail.com for a meeting before the programme starts.

Registration closes on 28 August 2025.

Catholicism Series Bible Study

The Genesis to Jesus team brings you the "Catholicism Series" - a series designed to help ordinary Catholics grow in their knowledge of key Catholic topics like Mariam, Lent, Angels & Saints, Catholic Art & Architecture and more while deepening their understanding of our rich faith. 10 Video sessions in all, held every second Tuesday with the next session on Tuesday 29 July from 6-7pm at St Mary of the Angels Parish Hall. Koha appreciated; light supper provided. If you need more information, please contact Donaldson at dlukose001@gmail.com

SMOA Church App

If you haven't already downloaded our new Parish App onto your smart phone, please do! On the app, you'll be able to view the newsletters, Mass times, upcoming events and more. You will also have the option to receive alert notifications, particularly if you are a part of a Parish group or ministry. To download the app, follow the steps below:

1. Go to your App Store or Google Play Store and search "ChurchAppsNZ"
2. Download the app, and then select St Mary of the Angels as a Parish
3. The app will then prompt you to select which "alert groups" you want to be a part of. Select as many or as few of these groups as you like. You will be able to change this later if you need to.

If you need any help setting this up, please do not hesitate to contact Abby at the parish office.
