St Joseph's Church

Baptisms on 3rd Sunday of each month.

The word mystery does not refer to something we know nothing about. Rather, mystery refers to something we know, but the more we know of it the more there is to know.

For us, the cross of Christ is just such a mystery. It shows how God's thoughts are not our thoughts, God's ways not our ways (cf. Isaiah 55:8) when, to save humanity, the Word of God made flesh chose "to empty himself to assume the condition of a slave and became as we are, and being as we all are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross" (cf. Philippians 2:7-8).

After centuries of Christianity, it is easy to 'dumb down' the ignominy and brutality of crucifixion which, in the Roman world, was a death sentence reserved for rebellious slaves and criminals guilty of the most heinous crimes. The scandal associated with crucifixion was a major stumbling block in the early evangelising mission of the Church attested by Paul when he said, "And so, while the Jews demand miracles and the Greeks look for wisdom, here are we preaching a crucified Christ; to the Jews an obstacle that they cannot get over, to the pagans madness, but to those who have been called...a Christ who is the power and wisdom of God" (cf. 1 Corinthians 1:22-24).

In his book, The Universal Christ, Richard Rohr writes, "The crucifixion of Jesus – whom we see as the Son of God – was a devastating prophecy that humans would sooner kill God than change themselves. Yet the God-Man suffers our rejection willingly so something bigger can happen". And what is this "something bigger" that is to happen? Nothing short of humanity's salvation with the added bonus of eternal life with God. This is the mystery of the cross, the cross of Christ which, today, we exalt because, in order to save us, God not only willingly underwent death, but would die in abject humiliation as the lowest of the low to cauterise the canker of sin and death that have bedevilled humanity since its fall from grace.

This is the mystery of the cross, which we as Catholics continue to ponder by affixing the figure of the one crucified to the cross reminding us of God's love for us, namely, that Christ should die "for us while we were still sinners...to make us righteous" (cf. Romans 5:8-9).

Care for Creation and Catholic Social Teaching - Save the date!

During September Christians reflect on the need to care for the earth, our common home. In our Archdiocese the Commission for Ecology, Justice, and Peace is asked to reflect on church and society in light of this tradition. The Commission extends an invitation to everyone interested in reflecting on ecology, justice and peace to gather on Saturday 4 October, the feast of St Francis of Assisi, from 9.30am to 12.30pm at St Joseph's Church, Mt Victoria. We will celebrate Mass and take time to share and reflect on issues of concern. We hope this will be a time of sharing and of making connections. A plate of food to share would be appreciated. Enquiries to Jim McAloon - jmcaloon@xtra.co.nz

Responsorial Psalm 77

R. Do not forget the works of the Lord!

Give heed, my people, to my teaching; turn your ear to the words of my mouth I will open my mouth in a parable and reveal hidden lessons of the past R.

When he slew them then they would seek him, return and seek him in earnest. They would remember that God was their rock, God the Most High their redeemer. R.

But the words they spoke were mere flattery; they lied to him with their lips. For their hearts were not truly with him; they were not faithful to his covenant. R.

Yet he who is full of compassion forgave their sin and spared them. So often he held back his anger when he might have stirred up his rage R

Ut non obli-viscantur one-rum De-i.

That they may not forget the works of God.

National Shrine Prayer

E te Atua, Creator of heaven and earth,
Source of all life, giver of all that is good,
We pray for Aotearoa New Zealand
And for all who come to her shores and make it their home.
We recall with gratitude our forebears in the Faith,
Who dedicated this country to the care of Mary,
Mother of God, assumed into heaven.
Pour out your Spirit upon us as we seek to respond to you,
Bringing your peace and harmony to this sacred land.
May we continue to praise you as we carry the Good News of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters.
We make this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
Mary, assumed into heaven; pray for us.

Reflecting the moral obligation of respect for the dignity of work and that all workers should receive a just and fair wage.
