Farewell for Father Kevin Mowbray sm

The Pastoral Parish Council will host a farewell for Father Kevin after the 11am Mass today in the Parish Hall. Everyone is welcome.

If you wish to contribute towards a gift to Father Kevin please give it to one of the priests or bring it to the Parish Office. If you wish to contribute by direct debit the Parish bank accounts details are:

SMOA Parish Account: BNZ 02-0536-0003242-24

Father Kevin leaves for his new position as Parish Priest of Christchurch South tomorrow.

Sacrament of Confirmation

Today at the Metropolitan Cathedral of the Sacred Heart 12 young people from St Mary of the Angels Parish will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation from Archbishop Paul Martin DD. These children have already been baptized and next year will complete their full initiation into the Church with the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion.

We warmly congratulate these children and acknowledge the Sacramental team who have helped prepare them for this sacrament.

Today at the 11am Mass at St Mary of the Angels two adult parishioners, Maria Karina Pina and Eoin Denvir will also receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. We warmly congratulate them on their full initiation into the Church.

Sung Advent Vespers

Each year we celebrate the beginning of Advent by joining with our neighbouring Christian churches; St John's Presbyterian and St Peter's Anglican by celebrating sung Advent Vespers. This year St Mary of the Angels are host for this liturgy.

Please mark the date in your calendars:

Sunday 30 November at 7pm in St Mary of the Angels Church. Supper will follow in the Parish Hall.

Carols with the Angels

The annual Carols with the Angels will be held on Wednesday 17 December at 7pm in St Mary of the Angels Church. This is always a 'highlight' of our preparation for Christmas so please put this date in your diary and invite your family and friends.

Father Barry Scannell sm

Feast of Christ the King

The Solemnity of Christ the King reminds us that Jesus' kingdom is not based on earthly power but on sacrifice and love. Through his death, he brings us into his kingdom, which is the Church. Just as Israel became one with David, we become one with Christ through the New Covenant. In every Eucharist, we renew this bond and look forward to the day we will be with him in paradise.

Jesus is a different kind of king, not what the people expected. Many hoped for a strong leader who would free them from Roman rule. They wanted a king like David, who would fight their enemies and restore their nation. Jesus doesn't rule with force or seek power for himself. His kingdom is based on love, mercy and sacrifice. The readings today show us how his kingship is not like earthly rule. He frees us, welcomes us, and calls us to follow him.

The rulers and soldiers mocked Jesus as he hung on the cross. They challenged him to save himself if he was truly the King. They expected a king who would use power to escape suffering. But Jesus showed his kingship in a different way. He accepted the cross and forgave those who hurt him.

Jesus frees us in a way no earthly ruler can. He frees us from sin, fear, and death. He calls us to live in his kingdom by caring for others, especially those who are weak or rejected. His rule is not about force but about love.

Following Jesus means trusting in God, even when life is hard. It means loving others even when it costs us something. Jesus shows us that true freedom comes from giving ourselves to God and serving others. This is what it means to live in his kingdom. To follow Jesus isn't always easy, for he does not rule with violence and power. His kingdom is built on peace, justice and love. It is not limited by time or place.

Jesus is a king of mercy. He does not rule with fear or punishment. He rules with kindness and forgiveness. He invites everyone into his kingdom, no matter their past.

In the Gospel, two criminals were crucified with Jesus. One insulted him, the other defended him. The second criminal admitted his guilt and asked Jesus to remember him. Jesus did not reject him instead he promised him a place in paradise.

This moment shows us the heart of Jesus' kingship. He does not turn away sinners. He welcomes those who seek him. He does not ask for great achievements or perfect lives. He asks for faith and trust.

Responsorial Psalm 97

R. . Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

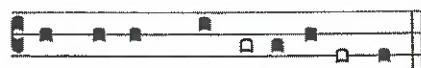

I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house'. And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. R.

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord.. R.

For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name. There were set the thrones of judgement of the house of David.. R.

Lae-tá-tus sum in his quae dicta sunt mi-hi:

in domum Dó-mi-ni i-bi-mus.

*I rejoiced at the things that were said to me:
we shall go into the house of the Lord.*

Blessing of Choirs

Each year on the Feast of Christ the King we thank God for those who enhance our Liturgy through singing. There will be a special blessing for the choirs at Masses today.

2026 Bible Diaries

The Bible Diary can be your most treasured companion as you go through next year. Each day features the scripture readings and an inspirational reflection that can set the tone for your own personal conversations with God. Fundraising for the Mission in India the diaries are available to purchase from the Parish Office for $20.

National Shrine Prayer

E te Atua , Creator of heaven and earth,
Source of all life, giver of all that is good,

We pray for Aotearoa New Zealand

And for all who come to her shores and make it their home.

We recall with gratitude our forebears in the Faith,

Who dedicated this country to the care of Mary,
Mother of God, assumed into heaven.

Pour out your Spirit upon us as we seek to respond to you,

Bringing your peace and harmony to this sacred land.

May we continue to praise you as we carry the Good News of Jesus Christ to our brothers and sisters.

We make this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Mary, assumed into heaven; pray for us.

Advent: a hīkoi for Pilgrims of Hope

In this new book, Bringing the Word to Life, Fr James Lyons and other Catholic leaders and writers, including Cardinal John Dew, offer timely reflections for each day of Advent and Christmas. Connecting Biblical truth with modern-day examples, they provide valuable spiritual nourishment for Catholics as this Year of Jubilee comes to a close – and a new year begins. As Archbishop Paul says, "I highly recommend it, and I know that you will find the reflections by fellow Catholics relevant and reflecting our faith experience within the context of this beautiful country we live in." If you are interesting on purchasing for $8.00, please contact the Parish Office to make an order.

A Merry Vinnies Christmas

The Passionist Family groups of the Parish annually help to collect items donated by the PFG's and other Parishioners who wish to donate.

There are baskets in each of the two Mass Centre's foyers. Please see the Parish Noticeboard with the list of items St Vincent de Paul are looking for, this is a great way to help those in need over the Christmas Season.

Thanking you in advance for your kind generosity..

St Mary of the Angels Working Bee 8.30am—10am, Saturday 6 December

Please come along and help tidy our Church ready for Christmas.

If possible, bring soft cloths or rags or long handled dusters.

All helpers welcome.
